Caltrans to Resume Hecker Pass Project on State Route 152

Santa Clara County- The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) will resume construction activities on the Hecker Pass Project on State Route 152. The project is a safety improvement project along portions of SR-152 near Gilroy in Santa Clara County between Pole Line Road and Watsonville Road.

One way traffic signal traffic control is placed near Santa Clara County line at post mile 1 and near Santa Clara County park entrance at post mile 3.0. Traffic signals will assist motorists and bicyclists traveling through the area; however, traffic delays can be expected. Construction signs are in place throughout the construction area and roads leading to SR-152.

Work will be conducted during the weekdays and construction for the project is expected to be completed by end of October, 2016.
